

How has shopping changed since my grandparents were little?

Key Vocabulary
bakery	A place where bread and cakes are made or sold.
butcher shop	A shop in which meat and poultry are sold.
haberdashery	A shop that sells items used in sewing.
payment	The action or process of paying someone for something.
products	An article or substance that is made to be sold.
rationing	A period of time during the war when people were only allowed a fixed amount of certain supermarket	A large self-service shop selling foods and household goods.

Bakery

Butcher shop

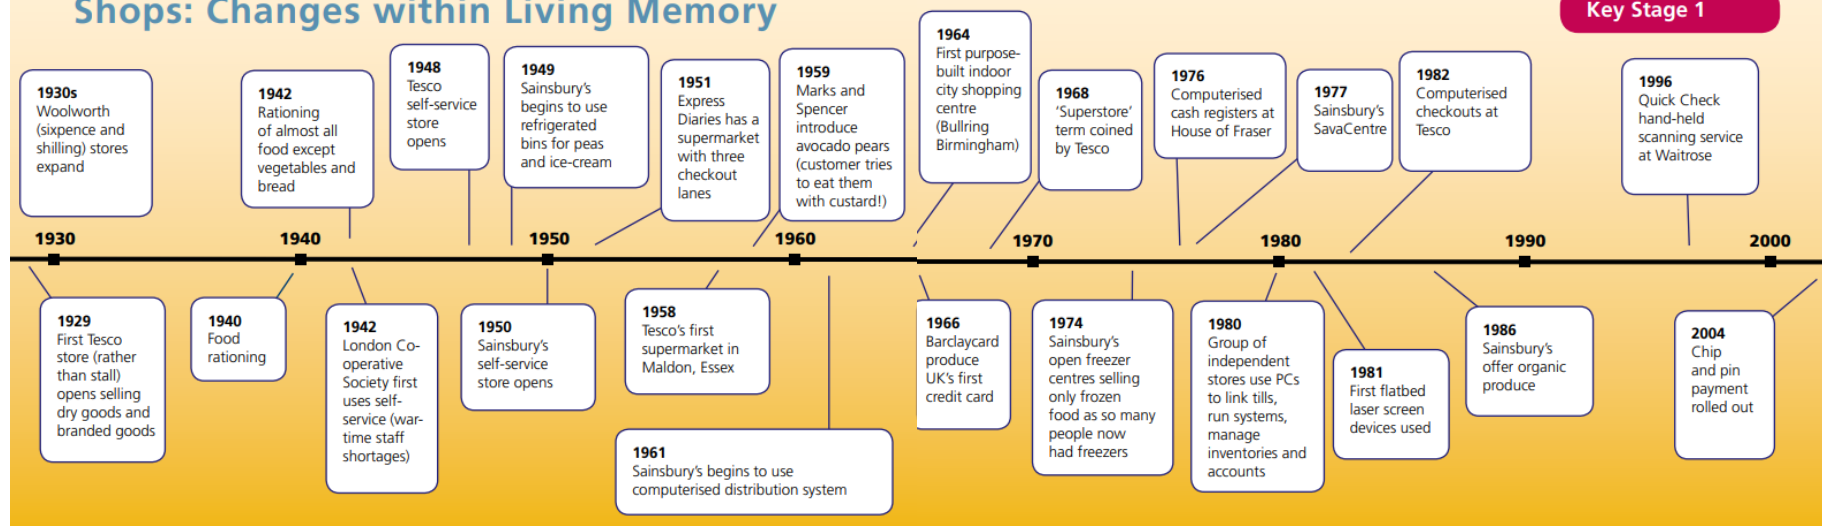

Haberdashery

Supermarket

Shops: Changes within Living Memory

Methods of payment have changed drastically since 1930. In 1930, although coins were used, they looked a lot different to the coins we use today and had different values.

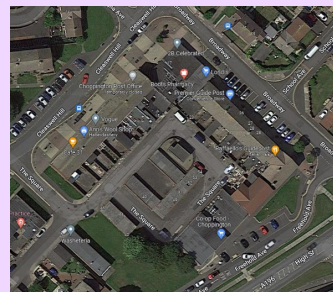

How has 'The Square' changed?

Photographs taken in 1960.

Photograph taken in 2008.

Google images taken 15/7/2022

Today, you can pay in lots of different ways including: using coins, paper money, paying by card or making an online payment.

